If you believe that this publication has some value to you, please consider donating what you think is a reasonable sum to some worthy purpose; even a tiny amount may make a difference somewhere. Some donations may also be tax deductible.

Consider the following organizations:

Services for at-risk children and families or community centers for our older neighbors.
Your local food pantry so people under high levels of stress need not also go hungry.

The Antique Pattern Library project is an excellent opportunity to support access to publications similar to this one. This service provides scans of craft pattern publications that are in the public domain or have permission to post. Many are edited for modem craftworkers and their technologies, http://www.antiquepattemlibrary .org/index.htm.

Donations to the National Library of Israel, an institution that makes resources available to many.
Your local library, a community college, or other learning scholarship fund are also very valuable local investments.

Consider also Archive.org as it helps make many resources available to all of us.

I would be surprised if any person or organization returns even a nominal donation.
